FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LES AMIS DU FROMAGE TO HOST HOLIDAY POP-UP SHOP WITH ARTISAN EDIBLES AND CHEF ANN KIRSEBÖM

les amis du FROMAGE will be hosting a pop-up shop in December. Local culinary legends Artisan Edibles and Chef Ann Kirseböm will be selling a full range of gourmet jellies, chocolates, chutneys, antipasti, and sauces. This unique holiday experience will prove a delicious destination for all your festive shopping needs.

This event will take place over two weekends at the 843 E. Hastings location of les amis du FROMAGE: December 3rd, 4th, 9th, 10th, and 11th from 10:00 AM to 6:00 PM

Classic and creative holiday entertaining ideas will be showcased alongside handcrafted specialty food products, offering ample opportunity for inspiration. Maureen Drew, owner of Artisan Edibles, emphasizes the inherent pleasure to be had attending this unique event, stating that “Chef Ann and I are excited to host this boutique shop at les amis du FROMAGE where guests can actually purchase onsite the exquisite cheeses and charcuteries we recommend for their holiday cheeseboards and entertaining. It’s a one-stop shopping experience for foodie lovers and holiday gift giving.”

les amis du FROMAGE owner Allison Spurrell has always valued her relationships with local small-batch makers of fine food products, stocking her shelves with the best from Vancouver’s culinary community. Allison says “We’re really happy to be hosting Artisan Edibles. They make some of our favourite jellies and antipasto.”
